

PRESS RELEASE

Lymington and District Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Issue date: 30 November 2009

BROAD APPEAL FOR CHAMBER TALK

With Lymington Community Centre serving all sections of the community, how appropriate that it recently hosted a Lymington and District Chamber of Commerce & Industry networking meeting.

For among the 30-plus members and guests attending the event were representatives of local businesses as diverse as Ellis & Co Insurance Services, Oscar Petfoods, We Run Errands, and Creative Plane Hypnotherapy.

The after-breakfast speaker was Penny Bicknell, Manager of Lymington Community Association.

As well as talking about how she came to take up this role, Penny looked back at how the LCA has developed over the years. She then went on to discuss future plans – which include making more use of facilities such as the fully equipped workshop – and urged the chamber audience to consider using the Community Centre as a venue.

The next chamber networking meeting will be held on Thursday 21 January at Stanwell House Hotel when the speaker will be psychologist, author, People First founder, and Magic Circle member Shay McConnon.
